COLOR OUR WORLD

As time goes on
I realize just what
This means to me

And now that the end is near Promises and friendships shared
Become dreams of moments
passed.
COLOR this world with

ADMINISTRATION

When asked about the goals and philosophies of School District 24J Mr. William Kendrick replied: "Based in a heritage of dedication to excellence in education, commitment to the enhancement of educational program opportunity and effectiveness, is the highest continuing goal of the district. Development of a well-planned and articulated curriculum and construction of needed educational facilities combined with the effort and support of the district staff and the community should result in educational program opportunities which will meet the future needs of the young people of Salem."

Administration

In speaking for the school administration, Mr. Ediger said, "The Administration at South Salem High School is committed to developing a program that will meet the needs of all our students. We feel that if students can experience success in school then life may be more meaningful to them in other challenges of life. It would be our goal that students could walk out of every classroom and out of the front door of the school and be able to say that they learned something and enjoyed the class and school."

ART DEPARTMENT

The Art Department added a class for Senior students, who showed artistic ability, and who had extreme involvement in art.

Invitations were given to the students, who were selected by the art teachers. Advanced Art was designed to help students understand what the field of Art is like as a career. The students held an Art Show displaying their work, and held a Christmas Art Sale. The class was career orientated, all areas of art were stressed, and the format was on an individual basis.

Another involvement of the Advanced Art class was a Lancaster Mall sponsored contest among all the Salem High Schools. The contest was to paint a Volkswagen Bug for Santa Claus to ride in from the airport. All the Schools participated and South Salem took second prize of $50.00.

South Salem High School is involved in the exploration process of the program on the tenth grade level and the preparation process on the eleventh and twelfth grade years. Ten clusters make up the career Ed program under the direction of Dan Lounsbury.

South High received a special Career Ed grant from the State Department and teachers have been writing and implementing curriculum. A Career Ed resource center was newly developed where students can employ various media to pursue career interests.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

This year's language department at South, is one of the largest, in percentage of the total student body, in the state. They have new equipment in their language lab to help the students with their pronunciation and to let them practice what they have learned. According to Mrs. Janet Reis, a student teacher from O.C.E. for Mrs. Leah Smith, "The language departments are a vital element in the intellectual development of about one-fourth of S.S.H.S. students. At the same time, the popularity of our courses indicates that many students enjoy these subjects."

Aside from the standard courses of sewing and cooking the Home Economics group is offering again this year the Child Care Career Cluster. This course helps the student to learn how to care for children and cope with the problems that arise while caring for them. That is the definition of the group of classes, headed by Mr. Jay Lockerby, that the students involved in popularly call "shop." The group includes woodworking, small engine theory, photography, electronics, and metals. Seven goals are stated with the main goals being; proper and safe usage of the common industrial tools, machines and processes; development of the individual talents, aptitudes, interests and potentials related to technical pursuits and applied sciences; and development of traits that will help him in obtaining and maintaining employment in industry

LANGUAGE ARTS

Language Arts classes are taught this year by teachers who continue to meet the immediate and long-range needs and interest of students. In keeping with a national trend the department is conducting a long range program to improve students' writing abilities. Sophomore students completed writing samples which were evaluated by the staff. The results will help the department design a basic skills test which will help the staff outline a writing program.

Department members have also met several times this year to discuss the courses offered in the department. The teachers hope to be better able to direct the students in choosing courses to meet future courses and career plans.

MEDIA

The newly adopted library pass system requires students to have teacher approval for admittance to the library all day. Students responding to a Clypian poll expressed mixed reactions. Most students expressed a desire to have free access to the library, however, some students agree with Mrs. Martin, librarian, who says that a better atmosphere for study has been created. In addition, library staff have ordered new equipment and books to increase services.

The Audio-Visual department moved to newly constructed quarters in the upstairs of the library. This move enabled Mr. Noland and his A.V. staff to work more closely with the library staff and thus created a true Media Center for South High.

SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

THE SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT consists of U.S. History, Western civilization, and Modern Problems.

U.S. History, a requirement for all juniors, gives the students a better understanding of our nation's history.

Modern Problems has been developed to engage in analysis and self expression on political and economical problems and problems related to prejudice and crime.

Western Civilization is a survey of influences that shaped our western society. This course places emphasis on helping students learn the skills and processes of historical inquiry.

Coch Barnes confers with defensive captain Pat Bickler

Although the headline is realistic the Saxon gridders were not looking for any excuses. They finished their season with 2 wins and 7 losses. From start to finish South lost 10 starters, including nine seniors. The Saxons started their season with the highly publicized 7 day voyage to Hawaii. The players hit the town but lost to Punahou High of Honolulu 34-12. South's first win was over West Albany 21-10. Sophomore tailback Randy Melton ran for 144 yards in 8 carries and two TD's to pace the route. Doug Froeschle and Blake Fry each scored conversions to add to the winning tally. Kevin Potter scored all 4 of South's TD's to lead the Saxons to their second straight and final win of the season 27-22 over Sprague. Dave Sloop was named to the second team All-District team on both offense and defense, as well as being voted the teams "Most Outstanding Lineman." Pat Bickler was named the second team All-District linebacker and was voted the "Most Inspirational Player." Tom Baker was voted the team's "Most Improved Player" award and Kevin Potter was given the "Most Outstanding Back" award. Mark Moser was selected to the Shriners All-Star Team.

J.V. FOOTBALL

Led by first year coaches, Greg Hunnicut and Larry Hayward, this year's edition of the Junior Varsity football team finished the season with a record of 2 wins and 6 losses. Crescent Valley and McNary were their victims, while they lost two close games: West Albany by one point and Lebanon by two.

Coach Hayward commented that the season as a whole was basically successful and that the inexperienced players gained valuable playing time, which is essential to their future years on the varsity.

Another plus cited by Hayward was the great number of quality sophomores produced by the J.V. program. Matt Voigt, quarterback; Martin Barrett, fullback; and Dave Newsom, tailback; each played an important role in the Saxon's offensive attack. Ed Hinges and Mike Bryce, both linemen, were moved up to starting positions on the Varsity mid-way through the season. Hinges also received the Gary Nelson Memorial award for being the most inspirational sophomore. Dave Hughes and Terry Tucker, also a lineman, and Jim Spence, a Slotback and punt return specialist, were all key players on the squad.

SAXONS CRUISE TO DISTRICT TITLE

The Cross Country Team came about as close as you can to having a perfect season this year. The only time the Saxons failed to take first was at the North Clack Invitational, where they took third place, and at the state meet where they placed ninth. In the first meet of the season the team won a close victory at the prestigious Tillamook Invitational, with Mike Poulsen placing sixth overall. Two weeks later the Saxons took virtually all honors at the Silver Creek Invitational, winning the varsity race with Bruce Hafferkamp taking first and Brian Hafferkamp, two seconds behind, placing second. The winning J.V. team was paced by South's two hopes for the future in Clancy Devary from Walker and Jeff Hildabrant from Leslie, who places 1st and 2nd respectively. The district meet provided few surprises with the Saxons positively annihilating the rest of the district with the first five runners placing in the top twelve. The State meet didn't go as well as hoped, but the team managed to take a close ninth place in the tightly bunched scoring. Top runner at state went to senior Brian Hafferkamp who placed 24th overall and beat all but one runner from our district

Boys' Gymnastics

"Youth was our biggest asset," said second year head coach Jerry Balaban as the Saxons had a less than impressive season. The reason behind the disappointing season was mainly due to many serious injuries and lack of experience of the remaining competitors. Out of six seniors this year all but Dave Bales were injured and out of action, or competing injured through out the year. The team was lead by senior all-around Rick Fallsetto who won a spot to go to the state meet on the parallel bars, but was unable to compete because of injury.

GIRLS' GYMNASTICS

The Girls' Gymnastics team placed 4th in District. Qualifying for State on the balance beam was Senior Julie Lambert, who placed 2nd in the District meet. On the uneven parallel bars were Junior Carolyn Hampton, taking 3rd in District, and Senior Jenny Hare, taking 4th.

Coach Perkins felt her team might have done better in District, had Nancy Bremmer, a junior who competed as all-around for most of the season, not been seriously injured prior to the District meet. Nancy placed in the top 3, in floor exercise, and balance beam in most of the season meets. Jenny stepped in as all-around for the District meet, which was held at South, and placed 5th in a field of twenty competitors.

In the first All-City meet held at North the Saxon girls won the city title. South placed first in three of the four events

Saxonette adviser Karen Williams decided to put her time into coaching a girls volleyball team, and Carma Quanbeck assisted as manager. ## SAXONS HAVE DISAPPOINTING SEASON

Coach Pete Tuggle at the start of the season said that he anticipated a slow start, but by the time the preseason games were over the team would be used to playing together and possibly be a league contender. But almost halfway through the first half of the regular season it was apparent that this prediction had not come true. It wasn't until the Saxons were to meet two of the toughest teams in the league that the Saxons briefly caught fire. In the first game the team beat third place South Albany 65-60 in a tightly fought game. The next game was against league leader and previously unbeaten Crescent Valley. Coach Tuggle said that the possibility of beating the Raiders on their own court, at that time, "was like trying to throw a rock at the moon," but in this case they hit it, as the inspired team edged Crescent Valley 64-62. Team captain Jeff Rains led the team in most categories: leading scorer, 207; leading rebounder, 156, Ken Evans led in shooting percentage with 51.96%, and Jim Mitchell led in free throw percentage with 78.26%.

SOPHS SEASON

Second year sophomore basketball coach, Bob Shields, again led his team to a winning record. The sophs placed high in the league standings with 9 wins and 7 losses and won 3 of their last 4 games to achieve the 11-10 overall winning record.

Coach Shields stated that the biggest personal satisfaction he gained from this season was the development of confidence and positive attitudes among his players as the season progressed.

Shane Pielstick led the team in scoring and assists while Randy Melton and Pat Horning were the top rebounders. Coach Shields gave a special praise to Jim Spence for his excellent defensive play and to Paul Miller and Brad Linden for being the most improved players.

J.V. BASKETBALL

The J.V. Basketball team ended up with a 5 and 15 record. Coach Larry Ward commented that he was pleased with the gradual improvement of play from his athletes and that "During the second half of league play they were competing at an even pace with most every team in the league."

Juniors Gary Hagedstedt, Rick Hiltz, Paul Boardman, Scott Miller, and Denny Thompson; and sophomores Jeff Ayers, Sam Skilern, Pete Chamberlain, and Tom Kay were deemed by Coach Ward as the outstanding players on the squad. Ward also noted that Skilern, Doug Stenerodden, and Brian Smithey were the most improved players.

SAXON GIRLS TAKE DISTRICT

The girls' basketball team was a first at South High and its season culminated in a trip to the State Tournament. The season record was 11-2, with a league record of 9-1. The Saxons lost at Crescent Valley by a score of 46-54. South girls won the rest of their games including Crescent Valley at home. This win earned South the right to have a playoff with Crescent Valley. South won the right to go to State. (58-39) at neutral West Albany.

At the State Tournament South won its opening game against Dallas 59-42 to move up to quarter finals again Wilson. South lost the Wilson game by two points with a score of 44-42, Wilson then went on to win the AAA Championship. Only 2 hours after a narrow defeat, South played Gresham for 3rd place but lost 32-60. South finished 5th in State.

Three Saxon girls were elected by coaches at the tournament to the Second Team All-State honors. Elected were Julie Cushing, Nancy Aiken, and Cathy Aiken. Julie Cushing was second high scorer for the State Tournament.

Cathy Aiken was the teams high scorer with 283 points for the season, with an average of 17 points per game. Second high was Julie Cushing with 205 points for the season and a 12 average. Lisa Mounter received the Most Improved Award; Judy Manley, Most Inspirational; and Julie Cushing was named Most Valuable Player by team members.

WRESTLING HOSTESSES

The Wrestling Hostesses are one of the most unheralded spirit groups at South Salem High, although they serve a useful and worthwhile contribution to the sport which they support. They raise their own money through bake sales, car washes, and other activities so they can buy materials to make locker tags, signs and to buy refreshments for the wrestlers. They not only support the wrestling team at meets but also serve as runners, scorekeepers, messengers, timers and most of all as avid fans.

WRESTLING

This year's Wrestling team didn't have one of its better seasons. The team finished last in the District 8 meet, won only 3 dual matches, and for the first time in many years South had no one in the State AAA Tournament. Junior Jeff Southwell was South's highest finisher at District; he placed 3rd.

Southwell also won the "Most Improved Wrestler" award. Gordy Hoy placed fourth and won the "Most Inspirational Wrestler" trophy. Steve Finneran also placed 4th, as well as being awarded the "Most Improved Wrestler." John Ebel also placed 4th in District.

South swimmers earned the top point total in the first annual All City swim meet. The Boys' Swim Team set a new school record again this year, dropping the previous time of 1:54.6 for the 200 yd. medley relay, to 1:51.6. Swimmers participating in the relay were Brock Miller, Mark Paillette, Russ Schorn and Mike McReal. Coach Grayum said that the early morning practice — 6:30 to 7:30 — took its toll by increasing the number of people plagued with colds and flu. Despite this the boys finished the season with a 5 win — 4 loss record.

Continuing on to district the team had three swimmers placing in the top six. Mark Paillette took second in the individual medley and fourth in breaststroke, Brock Miller swam to fifth in backstroke, and Russ Schorn finished with a sixth in butterfly.

GIRLS' SWIM TEAM

This year the Girls' Swim team finished off the year with 5 wins to 3 losses.

Mrs. Shirley Huycke says the team suffered illness and injuries some of which could be contributed to early morning winter practice.

In district, Robin Craig placed first in Backstroke, and broke the district record. She also got 4th in Butterfly. LeeAnn VanHees got 4th in Breaststroke and 6th in Individual Medley, while Patty Sanders placed 7th.

The 400 yd. Freestyle Relay team which consisted of Patty Sanders, Robin Craig, LeeAnn VanHees and Carolyn Fairfax, placed 7th in district.

The South Salem baseball team started the first half of the season slowly compiling a 3 wins 5 loss record. The young Saxons got untracked and compiled the best second half record of any team 5 wins 3 losses. South knocked off the league champs Crescent Valley twice 3-2, 1-0.

South was led by third baseman Charlie Fowler with a .345 batting average followed by Rick Grenz, .310 and Cliff Cotton, .294. Mark Moser led the league in E.R.A. with a fine .056 and also strikeouts with 89. Moser was selected to play in the Metro-State Allstar game and also was named Prep baseball player of the year by the Salem Breakfast Club. All League went to Mark Moser, pitcher; Rick Grenz, outfield; and Cliff Cotton, first baseman. Honorable mention to the District team went to Sam Skillern, Dan Bechtall, Charlie Fowler, Richie Payne, and Don Alt.

ROOK BASEBALL

The Junior Varsity baseball team had a league record of 8 wins and 8 losses. Coach Mike Doran commented that his team as a whole had a productive year and would have had a more impressive record "if they hadn't gotten into that midseason slump." They JayVees played their best ball during the first half of the season, victorious in all of their first five games, which included an 8-0 white-wash of eventual champion Lebanon.

Ed Hinges had the "Most Valuable Player" and Gary Groom "Most Inspirational," honors bestowed upon them by fellow teammates. Hinges had a .400 batting average and Groom hit .346.

Other players who had successful seasons were Rick Villoreal with a .310 average, Pete Chamberlain an even .300 hitter, and Dave Hughes who slugged out a .293 average. Ace pitcher, Glenn Dorn, won 5 games and lost 2, holding his opponents to a total of just one earned run, a feat described by Coach Doran as "a remarkable achievement."

SAXON TRACK

The Saxons started the season virtually assured of retaining their district crown of a year ago. As expected the team started off with a good showing at the Willamette relay, with Randy Melton winning the Oliver Houston 100-yd dash and Thane McTaggart taking second in the Statesman mile. The dual meets went about as expected with the mile relay team proving itself to be the best in the state and javelin thrower Gerry Goggins proving to be a big threat in District. The team remained undefeated throughout most of the season suffering only one defeat to Corvallis, but as it came down to District meet time the team members were slowly but surely being struck by injury or illness. South ended the district meet third and qualified 7 athletes for the State Meet: Kevin Potter, pole vault; Frank Schorol, discus; Gerry Goggins, javelin; and the 440 Relay Team consisting of Darrell Hawkins, Craig Volz, Ross Roberts, and Randy Melton.

GIRLS' TRACK

This year's track team ended the season with a record of 5-2, and placed 4th in district behind Lebanon, Crescent Valley and West Albany, 1, 2, and 3 respectively. South sent 2 individuals to its 440 relay to state. Dana Collins qualified for state by placing first in the long jump, 200, and 110 hurdles, and placed 3rd in high jump with a qualifying 5 foot jump. At state she placed first in long jump and 7th in hurdles. Joetta Anderson represented South Salem in the 880 by placing 2nd at district. The 440 relay consisted of Mary Schuberg, Lori Eschleman, Nancy Aiken and Jenny Vergine.

The following awards were voted by teammates. Dana Collins received "Most Valuable," Carma Quanbeck, "Most Inspirational," and Mary Schuberg, "Most Improved."

GIRLS' TENNIS TAKES THIRD

The girls' tennis team did well this year placing 3rd in the District 8 AAA Championship, closely behind 1st place West Albany and 2nd place Crescent Valley. Their season record was 6 wins and 2 losses. Three girls received their 3rd year letter award. They were Tracie Domogallo, Nancy Sanders, and Carey Settecase. Two girls received 2nd year awards, ten girls received 1st year awards, and four JV awards were presented. Because of a new District ruling four ninth graders were able to be a part of the tennis team.

BOYS' TENNIS TEAM

This year's tennis team guided by Coach John Nagle turned in a smashing 13-1 season record. The Saxons placed third at a tough district as the Doubles team of Paul Miller and Whitney Boise took first at district to advance to the State Tournament. There they tied for sixth place. Coach Nagle expects a strong returning team next year as he lost only three seniors.

Highlight of the season was a trip to Grants Pass, Medford, and Roseburg. They won all three team matches against these traditionally tough southern teams.

J.V. RALLY

The J.V. Rally started off a busy year by attending the summer camp at Lewis and Clark College where they won numerous ribbons, trophies, and the highest award, the "spirit stick." They also joined the Varsity football team on its journey to Hawaii.

The J.V.'s really got going with the help of Bev Sevall, the rally advisor, a past cheerleader herself.

Rally members agree that the year wouldn't have been the same without Terri's "munch mouth," Julie's absent mindedness, Andi's imagination, Leslie's craziness, and Jacque's "sax" appeal.

SPIRIT

It has been said that the spirit at South Salem was dwindling, but this year's "Spirit Spree" showed just how enthusiastic the students really were

Many activities were planned by interested student body members including a marshmallow eating contest, locker tag competition, stairwell decorations, twirp day and buck-buck competition

STUDENT ASSEMBLY

This year the Associated Student Body council consisted of 8 committees.

The Welfare and Publicity committee was active throughout the year with making and selling the SAXON-O-PHONES and keeping the activities calendar up to date. They also were in charge of Rotarian and Youth Optimist elections. If a student was ill for a long time they sent a get well card.

Finance committee held various sales in the center hall and they were busy during UGN week planning assemblies and sales.

The Activities committee planned the after game dances and the assemblies. Also a camping trip was planned but other dates interfered.

Elections committee held ASB elections at school's end and semester. They also made the rules for the candidates.

The Liason committee is the link between the school and the outside community. They also work with the community to provide a better understanding of our school.

The committee for the constitution interprets and judges all new amendments going to the schools constitution.

The Campus committee, formerly the Building and Grounds committee, is responsible for the physical appearance of the school.

The Curriculum committee recommends improvements to the schools course offerings.

These committees work together as representatives of South High and make South what it is today.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

This year Girls' League has been involved in many activities. Throughout the year they held fund raising activities, such as Spook-o-grams, Valo-grams, and a Flea Market, to raise money for the Girls' League Scholarship which was given to Tracie Domogalla.

The Girl of the Month and Year were sponsored by Girls' League. They also hosted a Christmas Faculty tea for the faculty and staff of South Salem High.

In May they held their annual Mother-Daughter Tea. The food was baked by the Home Economics classes, and Southernaires were selected as the entertainment. Students also modeled clothing made in sewing classes.

BOYS' LEAGUE

Boys' League, headed by Rob Sederstrom, had a limited number of activities due to a lack of participation. Boys' League was in charge of nominating Boy of the Month. Another major event that the Boys' League was in charge of was choosing Reb Debs and escorting them at home games. Boys' League sponsored a variety of activities for an assembly program. Included were a race car assembly, table tennis demonstration, and Armed Forces assembly.

ENVIRONMENT CLUB

The purpose of the Environment Club is to create awareness of environmental problems. In order to make the students and teachers of the school more aware the Environment Club sponsored Earth Week activities. Noon hour movies on ecology, bicycle races and a community recycling project were highlights of the week. The adviser was Mr. Perry Spelbrink.

THESPIANS

A Thespian is a high school student who has earned ten Thespian points: an equivalent of one-hundred hours of onstage and crew work. Once initiated, a student is a life-time member. Activities center around the plays, assemblies, and noon-shows held at South. There is one major initiation in which the student must prepare and perform some form of dramatic presentation for the Thespians and new members.

MIME TROUPE

The Mime Troupe was selected from the tryouts held at the beginning of the year. Its goal is to gain control of every part of the body so when they call on it it will respond. To achieve this goal they worked on body coordination, fluidity, composure, rhythm and balance. Mime is an exaggeration of actions so broadly done that all that is needed is the body to create those things around one. The Mime Troupe Director was Ray Cooley, a former student at South, who was also in the mime troupe. The Mime Troupe held its own special show this year, participated in the Christmas show, and did several performances around the city of Salem.

CHESS CLUB

South's chess team again entered competition with area schools for the 1974-75 season. The team as a whole placed second in district behind Sprague to whom they lost their first game. The team also placed third as a whole in state competition. Ben Bednarz, Mark Anstead and Robert Henry finished with the highest number of wins.

President of the chess club was Ben Bednarz; vice-president was Mark Turner and treasurer was Robert Henry.

Advisers to the club were Mr. Gerry Balaban and Harold Snyder.

The team also entered an international meet in Yakima, Washington. High finishers earned the opportunity to continue on to the National Championships.

LANGUAGE CLUBS

Foreign Languages are a big part of South High's teaching structure. German, French, Spanish and Russian are taught.

To correspond with the Languages there is a club for each Foreign Language. Throughout the year, these clubs have various sales to earn money to help them finance their adventures. In this way, they can learn more about the cultures and customs of a country in addition to learning the language itself.

Nestor: Rotary Exchange

This year's Rotary Exchange student is Nestor Matasolana from Costa Rica. While in Salem Nestor is attending South High and is staying with the Iral Barrett family. In staying with the Barretts' he has gained a father, Iral; a mother, Gwen; a brother, Martin; and a sister, Ruthann.

Nestor enjoys life and the people here in Salem very much, but he still says "There's nothing like home to me."

Kurt Hallamasek: A.F.S.

Kurt Hallamasek, at 16, is South's youngest Senior. Kurt makes his home in Mannersdorf, Austria. Mannersdorf is a small village about 30 miles from Vienna. His family includes six people: two brothers, Karl 17, Fritz 12; one sister Mana 14; and his father and mother, Dr. Karl Hallamasek and Prof. Senta Hallamasek.

While in Salem Kurt is staying with the Robert McConville family, and enjoys skiing, tennis, photography, and the students at South.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

American Field Service Activities this year centered around raising money to send selected South students overseas. This year "A.F.S. Week" was held the week of April 14-18. During this week there was a raffle with prizes consisting of various donated gifts, the traditional selling of countries, and an A.F.S. Family Potluck Dinner. A day was set aside for other A.F.S. students from other cities, to come and visit South. Other activities included a pizza party, baked food sales, and on Friday a dance at which a group from Sprague High School played. A.F.S. was led by President, Debbie Jones. Miss Wolff was the advisor. Miss Herringer and Mrs. Martin actively participated in co-ordination and selection of the A.F.S. Students.

This year the United Way fund raising campaign was held the week of November 11-15. It started off with "Charlie Chaplin" movies sponsored by the Junior Class. They also sold tickets for students to dunk other students and teachers during noon hours all week. On Thursday the Seniors had an assembly held during class time. It featured a spaghetti eating contest. Juniors also sponsored a pie throwing contest during the lunch hour. On Friday the Seniors sponsored the "Barnyard Boogie," where people came dressed as Hillbillies and received awards for participation and appearance. At the Boogie winners of the "Raggedy Ann" raffle and M & M guessing contest were announced. Fred Meyer was the scene of the car wash held by the Sophomores. The total amount raised was $298.86.

CLYPIAN

Clypian staff writers faced the challenge of serving their readers by not only covering school curriculum and activities but also exploring significant problems in the community and the nation. Due to the slump in the economy during the first semester, advertising sales and The Clypian itself were diminished. However, with increased ad sales and staff writers, the volume was more than doubled in the spring. The most popular of nine issues featured the UFO hoax and Freddy Farce. Staff writers sometimes gained inspiration for their creations from their jaunts to the printer in Dallas. Adviser Helen Cohen noted that this year's seniors made innovative contributions to the paper, and their absence will be felt.

SWORD AND SHIELD

A total of 17 students worked during the year on the 1975 Sword and Shield. Students began the year by attending an all-day yearbook workshop at Portland State University.

For the first time in many years the Sword and Shield, was an almost total student production. Advanced photographers, under the direction of Bob McElroy, put in many class and after school hours taking, developing, and printing the many pictures which appear in the yearbook.

Another first for the yearbook was the selling of advertising to offset production costs. The staff appreciates those community businesses which helped to support the 1975 Sword and Shield.

CAREER EDUCATION

This year ten Career Clusters were offered to meet the needs and interests of the South Salem student body. All were two hour blocks open to Junior and Senior students.

Bruce Johnson takes bills to the Land Conservation and Development Department.

The GRASP Cluster consists of class study and student participation in the the government of Salem and Oregon. The students help the community as legislative aides, police cadets or work in some part of our government. This program is headed by Bob Smith.

The Secretarial cluster, instructed by Connie Tjernberg, is to prepare the student for a secretarial career. Model Office, part of the program, puts the students in an office situation two hours per day.

Members of the Marketing cluster attend school in the morning and work in various business around Salem in the afternoon. Walter Karlson instructs the retail selling cluster.

A. Craig Bennett, police cadet, prepares to leave. B. 74-75 Model Office workers. C. Jan Moon convinces a customer to buy a product while working at American Handicraft.

Kelly Cole reads to some day care students at Bush Barn

A. Participants in the Day Care Center B. Donna Delap, DO member, checks the oil gauge

A Day Care Center where children come for two hour sessions three days a week is part of the child care cluster. The remaining time students spend learning and sharing ideas on child psychology and behavior. Other students are in "on the job" day and child care programs within the community.

The Health Occupations cluster consists of a two year program. The first year is mainly class study and the second year combines class study with on the job training. It is headed by Diane Sullivan.

The Diversified Occupations cluster combines those jobs not related to the other career clusters offered at South. The students learn the correct procedure in getting and keeping a job and what jobs comply with their aptitudes and capabilities.

Gerry Zwachka is surprised in Memorial Hospital storeroom.

The Food Service cluster, supervised by Cindy Johnston, gives the student an indepth study of the food service occupation. Students not only get class room and lab experience but also the chance to prepare food for banquets and other special events in the community. They work in the school cafeteria and also visit food service businesses in this program.

Kevin Davis, cadet teacher at McKinney, says, "It's easier to learn in a bathtub."

In the Cadet Teaching cluster the word is responsibility. The cadets, directed by Mrs. Lida Halvorsen, learn all about the job while aiding a teacher. They learn how to cope with many different situations and how to make school work fun and enjoyable for the students. This cluster, which is in its twentieth year, helps to build the self confidence of the cadets and gives a feeling of worth.

Student learn wiring in a simulated house structure

In the Electronics cluster students learn about appliances, motors, and wiring. Bob McElroy, who heads the program, also helps the students to learn advanced theory, bench skills, and trouble shooting skills.

The Construction cluster, co-ordinated by Larry Ward, learned all the methods of construction available. This aided them in the finishing of a 4-H module from last year and the starting of a new one. They also built school benches, baseball dugouts and scoreboard, and repaired shelves and other things around the school.

The metals cluster, headed by Jay Lockerby and Mick Thiel, gives the students experience and teaches them the refined skills of metals I.

The competition was hard and the hours long for those who auditioned for "Tartuffe." For those who advanced to the cast it was only the beginning.

The setting of the play was changed from the 1600's era to the 1930's to attempt a different style in Moliere. The production staff wanted to see if Moliere's comedy could stand up through the transition of time. The lines were left the same and the outcome was unique. It was a refreshingly different twist in a play. It brought over 150 students together to "get it all together."

"It was fun, exciting, and a really worthwhile experience for the cast, crews and audiences which were involved," said Mrs. Quanbeck, Director. "It was a challenge to do because the commedia dell'arte's broad form requires research and much careful timing."

Mrs. Phyllis Quanbeck was assisted by Mr. Robert Withycombe, technical director; Mr. Rick Esson, assistant technical director; Mr. Robert Tinnell, lighting design; Betsy Apley and Sue Hassman, student directors; Claire Martin, production director; and Rob Sederstrom, production manager.

The Show With A Thousand Laughs

A. Sondra (Kay Whiting) tells Murray the probably loves him B. Albert (Timmy Groom) is introduced to Nick's favorite toy, Bubbles C. Mr. Jacobson supervises the printing of the winter play posters D. Arnold (Dave Canongale) tells Murray what his problem is — other people

The winter play "1000 Clowns" was the smallest ever at South in terms of cast but big in message and style. "1000 Clowns" is about an unemployed man, Murray, who is left with the task of taking care of his preteen genius nephew. The welfare board sends Albert and Sandra, two social workers, to investigate the situation, and Sandra and Murray fall in love. But that is not the happy ending. Murray must still decide whether he will take a job, with Chuckles, that Arnold, his brother and agent, has offered him.

The show was presented February 13, 14, and 15 after a month of preparation. Mrs. Phyllis Quanbeck directed the play with Bob Withycombe as technical director and Bob Tinnell in charge of the lighting system. Nancy Gardner was the student director and Betsy Apley was the production director.

A. Murray (Ralph Hansen) "You better go to your room." Nick (Brian Putnam) "This is a one room apartment." B. Chuckles (Dale Blanchard) The "Chuckles-hello, 'Chip-Chip Chippermonkie." C. Nick, Sandra, and Murray sing, "Yes sir that's my baby." D. Jan Hofstetter holds up the poster that she designed.

SOUTH PACIFIC

Without the dedication of the students it would be almost impossible to put on a play here at South. It takes real dedication for them to faithfully come to uncountable hours of practicing acting, music, dancing, crew work and in this play there was also marching practice.

Many characters this year were shared by two people. They were the parts of Nellie, Emile, Bloody Mary, Ngana and Jerome. This double-casting created some difficulty as it cut down the practice time of each student in his part, but the students involved dealt with this problem and overcame it with extra special efforts.

In only four nights it was all over and student life went on as before but never will those lives forget the special and meaningful experience of being in a South play.

South Pacific was a real challenge for all involved.

A. Emile (Ralph Hansen) and Nellie (Betsy Apley) sing a lover's duet. B. Nellie (Gail Alexander) explains her feelings to Emile (Chuck Cooper). C. Ralph Hansen gives his Frankenstein imitation for Kathy Olson and Debbie Hansen. D. The Navy presents the Thanksgiving Follies to the company.

While the nation was watching the fate of Richard Nixon, the South High speech team began its competitive season. After a humble beginning in the town of Canby (affectionately alluded to by its residents as "The Garden Capital of the World,") the team struggled through puberty, conducting its own South High Invitational Tourney in November. Attended by 350 top speakers from 24 high schools, the tourney was lauded as one of Oregon's best. Tiring of the high school circuit, the team moved up to bigger and better things, including trips to Spokane, Wash. and Ashland, Oregon. Climaxing the year were J. J. Martin's second place oratory victory in Oregon's National Forensics League and several outstanding performances in the annual state contest. Placing at state were Paul Mathias, 7th in expository speaking; Pete Gray, 6th in Lincoln-Douglas debate, Gail Alexander, 3rd in Oratory, Terry Canning-Steller, 3rd in humorous interpretation and 2nd in oratory; and Dave Putnam.

Honored as speakers of the year were Claire Martin and Pete Gray.

MUSIC GROUPS

The A Cappella Choir is South's top rated singing group. Selected by auditions, this group appeared throughout the school year. They started off the year performing at the Fall Concert in November. They also appeared at the Capital Rotunda noon concert, KVDO Christmas special, Christmas Festival, and ended the year singing "Godspell" at the Fine Arts Concert in May.

South's choir also hosted Lake Oswego's Choir.

South High's popular singing group began the year early by having a furniture sale, car raffle and other activities to earn their way to Hawaii. Once there they sang at Ala Moana shopping center, Sheraton Hotel, Punahoe, and various others. Upon returning they were booked up for the holiday with 20 concerts in 20 days! Among the annual season concerts they sang on KVDO-TV. They ended up the year with the Fine Arts concerts in May.

The Southernaires gave a performance for the mothers at the annual girls league tea.

"A TIME FOR US"

The theme of the South High 1975 Junior-Senior Prom was "A Time For Us." A group formed and named just two days before the prom, "Infinity," played both fast and slow music. "A Time For Us" was held on a Friday night, May 23, from 8:00 to 12:00 p.m., in South's East Balcony.

Variety of experiences of people were depicted by the decorations. Such things as a waterfall, a bench-swing, and "Snowbird," a mock ski lodge, to name a few, comprised the decorations for the Prom.

Couples dance to the music of this year's group, "Infinity"

BOY AND GIRL OF THE MONTH

The titles of Boy and Girl of the month are given out to the seniors who best display the particular characteristics attributed to that month. Boys' and Girls' Leagues make a list of eligible students and then pass it on for voting by the general student body. At the end of the year a boy and girl, from this group, are chosen Boy and Girl of the Year.

BACCALAUREATE

White gladiolus and chrysanthemums and red carnations flanked the stage as Rev. W. M. Whitwell of the First Baptist Church delivered the Baccalaureate sermon, "What Next?". His scripture came from Joshua 1:8-9. Sharing the podium with him was Rev. H. B. London, First Church of the Nazarene, who gave the Invocation and Benediction.

Seniors marched into the Auditorium on the evening of May 29 at 8 p.m. as Mrs. Wallace Johnson played the processional: "Pomp and Circumstance."

Music during the evening included an anthem, "A Jubilant Song," by the A-Choir under the direction of Gary Frame, and a congregational hymn, "Faith of our Fathers."

Mrs. Johnson played "Marche Romaine" as 190 Seniors left the traditional graduation religious service.

ROTARIANS AND OPTIMISTS

The Rotarians and Optimists are chosen by the ASB Council. Each month they attend the luncheon meetings of the Downtown Rotary Club and the Salem Optimists. They are just one link between the school and the business community of Salem

SENIORS HONORED

The annual Senior Banquet was replaced this year with a pizza party at Pietra's. The humorous awards were given out at this time. Scholastic awards were announced over the school announcements and written on the graduation program. The students on this page are only a representative few of all the many seniors who received outstanding awards.

A. Mr. Frame presents Brian Berg with the Fine Arts Award at the Spring concert. B. Among Seniors receiving scholarships are Greg Williams, Navy ROTC, and Terry Canning-Stellar, scholarship to Scripps College. C. Other honors were awarded to Rob Maxey, American Legion District Speaking contest; Trace Demogalla, Girls' League Scholarship, and Kim Young, Business Women's Association scholarship. D. Receiving awards for achievements in school affairs are Bill McLan, the Science Award, and Kevin Potter, Athlete of the Year.

GRADUATION

At 8:00 p.m. on June 4, 1975, in the South High Gymnasium complex, 361 students received their diplomas.

Reverend Gerald T. McCray, Sr., of the Leslie Methodist Church, gave the Invocation and Benediction. The Senior Class elected Sue Kay to deliver her speech, "Its Getting Better All the Time," and Dave Bales, who spoke on "The Value of High School as a Learning Experience."

The presentation of diplomas was handled by Mrs. Grace Thorp, and Mr. Robert French of the School Board; and Mr. Bruce Rafn and Mr. Bart Simmons, representing the district administration.

A special flute solo was given by Allen Mair with Shelly Smith accompanying.

The Concert Band, directed by Stephen Funk, played the processional and recessional.

Seniors wait to enter the gymnasium.

Because of years of devotion to the Sword and Shield publication, the staff would like to dedicate the 1974-75 Sword and Shield yearbook to Mrs. Joan Forster. She has been the adviser for seven years and this will be her last year. With her new ideas and dedication the yearbook has achieved a goal of excellence.

We also wish to give special thanks to Mr. Mike Howser of Taylor Publishing Co., and Mr. Dick Stephani of Stephani Studios.

THE END

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of understanding the cultural context of the research. It highlights the need for researchers to be sensitive to the values and beliefs of the communities they are studying. This is particularly important in the field of education, where cultural differences can significantly impact learning outcomes. The paper then moves on to discuss the challenges of conducting research in diverse cultural settings. It notes that researchers often face difficulties in finding appropriate research methods and in interpreting the data they collect. To address these challenges, the paper suggests that researchers should adopt a more flexible and open-minded approach to their research. This involves being willing to learn from the community and to adapt their research methods as needed. The paper also emphasizes the importance of building trust and rapport with the community. This is essential for ensuring that the research is conducted in a respectful and ethical manner. Finally, the paper concludes by noting that while there are many challenges to conducting research in diverse cultural settings, it is also an opportunity to gain valuable insights into the lives of people from different cultures. By taking the time to understand and appreciate these differences, researchers can make a significant contribution to the field of education and to the well-being of the communities they study.
